PROCLAMATION OF THE RE- SERVATION OF CERTAIN LANDS IN THE KOOLAU AND THE HANA FOREST RE- SERVES.

ISLAND OF MAUI.

UNDER and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the provisions of Chapter 28 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, enacted February 27, 1905, as amended by Act 65 of the Session Laws of 1905, enacted April 26, 1905, and by Act 4 of the Session Laws of 1907, enacted March 5, 1907, and of every other power hereunto enabling, I, A. L. C. ATKINSON, Acting Governor of Hawaii, having held the hearing, of which notice had been duly given, as in said acts provided, do hereby set apart as integral parts of the Koolau and the Hana Forest Reserves on the Island of Maui, subject to the existing leases, as provided by law, the government forest lands described below.

KOOLAU FOREST RESERVE.

IN THE KOOLAU (MAUI) FOREST RESERVE, I do hereby set apart, as integral parts of that reserve, these portions of the tracts of government land (more particularly described below) known as Honomau, Koonae Mauka, Waiala 1 and 2 Mauka, Waiala—Ulaia Forest and Hana Forest, which lie within the boundaries of the Koolau Maui Forest Reserve, the location and metes and bounds of which said reserve, situate in the Districts of Koolau and Hamakua, Island of Maui, are more particularly described by and on a map made by the Hawaiian Government Survey Department, which said map is now on file in the said Survey Department, marked "Registered Map No. 1268" and "Koolau Forest Reserve, Maui" and a description accompanying the same, numbered C. S. F. 1630 which said description, now on file in the said Survey Department, is as follows:

Beginning at a point on the boundary line between the Districts of Hana and Koolau, where the mauka boundary of the Nahiku homesteads if projected easterly would intersect the said District line, the boundary runs:

1. In a general north-westerly direction to and along the mauka boundary of the Nahiku Government homesteads to the gulch between the lands of Kapula and Paaken, or Paaken, said gulch being also named Waiaka gulch on Public Lands Map No. 20 of Nahiku about 22,000 feet in a direct line;

2. Thence mauka, down said Waiaka gulch to the Koolau Ditch, about 2,800 feet in a direct line;

3. Thence in a general westerly direction along the Koolau and Upper Hamakua Ditch trail to the western boundary of the land of Opau in the District of Hamakua, about 61,000 feet in a direct line;

4. Thence mauka along the westerly boundary of said Opau to the mauka boundary of the land of Haiku aka, belonging to the Haiku Sugar Company and Pala Plantation, about 29,000 feet in a direct line;

5. Thence, in a general westerly direction, along the mauka boundary of the said Haiku aka land of the Haiku Sugar Company and Pala Plantation, to the Maliko Gulch, near Pau o Ka Moa, about 2,000 feet in a direct line;

6. Thence south 34 deg. East, true, 17,800 feet, along the land of Makawao to the summit of the hill called Pau o Kahua;

7. Thence south 53 deg. 21 min. East, true, 42,920 feet along the land of Kalkikini, crossing the Koolau Gap, to Kahaku Oki Alua;

8. Thence, in a general easterly direction, along the northern crest of the Kipahulu Valley to a point where the boundary line between the Districts of Koolau and Hana, intersect the Kipahulu Valley, about 10,000 feet in a direct line;

9. Thence, in a general north-easterly direction, along the said boundary line between the said Districts of Koolau and Hana to the point of beginning, about 21,500 feet in a direct line. The various distances in the above description are approximate only, being scaled from the map showing the reserve boundary.

Area 42,909 acres, more or less.

The location and metes and bounds of each of the above named tracts are more particularly described by descriptions prepared by the Hawaiian Government Survey Department, numbered C. S. F. 1630, which said descriptions, now on file in the said Survey Department, are as follows:

Portion of Government land of Honomau, within the KOOLAU, MAUI, FOREST RESERVE, and covered by Lease 52.
